REF: SDB Certification #0408-2060P
Expiration Date (Three years from date above)

Dear Mr. Lemos:

We are pleased to inform you that your firm is certified as a Small Disadvantaged business (SDB) under U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) guidelines. Certification is valid for three years from the date of this letter. If the firm already has a profile in the Dynamic Small Business Search (DSBS), your firm will be added to SBA's list of certified SDBs found in the DSBS registry. The DSBS is SBA's on-line registry and is located at <http://www.ccr.gov>.

The SDB Program regulations in Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Section 124.1016(b), require that during your three-year term you report within 10 days any changes in ownership and control or any other circumstances which could adversely affect the eligibility of your firm as an SDB. Failure to do this could result in the decertification of your firm. Please note that in order for your firm to continue as an SDB certified firm after its three-year term, you must re-apply for certification.

I wish you much success in your future business endeavors.

Sincerely,

LaTanya D. Wright, Esq.
